

MRS. BEAKLEY

“Downton Abbey” meets Helen Mirren in RED. A former MI-6 operative, Beakley is prim, no-nonsense, and tough as nails, working as both his housekeeper and personal bodyguard. She’s an unstoppable fighter with a keen tactical mind (but a terrible cook). Ever since gaining custody of her granddaughter Webby, Beakley has put her adventurous past behind her and dedicated herself to keeping her family safe and her home tidy. As one of Scrooge’s former adventuring companions, Beakley is both Scrooge’s closest confidant and the only person who can call him out, both mentally and physically. She’s a dry woman of few words, but she makes every one of them count.

MRS. BEAKLEY SIDES

1. MRS. BEAKLEY

DRY: Welcome to McDuck Manor. Do not leave the designated "play area". Do not touch anything. Try not to look at anything. McDuck Enterprises is not responsible for injuries accidental, supernatural, or metaphysical. Lunch will be served promptly at noon. It will be adequate.

2. MRS. BEAKLEY

IMPOSING: They say there are 32 major pressure points that can disable a living duck. I say they're not looking hard enough.

3. MRS. BEAKLEY

ANGRY: I can handle the coming and going as you please, dragging mud-caked relics and ancient curses behind you, as wave after wave of criminal and ne'er-do-well attempts to break in to kill us all. But with God as my witness, you will LEARN. TO USE. A COASTER.

4. MRS. BEAKLEY

INSPIRATIONAL: You're Scrooge McDuck, professional adventurer, and the only person on earth who can almost best me in an arm wrestling contest. Now get back out there and talk to your nephews!

5. MRS. BEAKLEY

SINCERE: Webbigail, I love you more than you can ever possibly know. And if you lie to me again, I will lock you away in a box for the rest of your natural life.
